

Travel on a Tall Ship

October 18-20, 2013
1100 Friday to 1400 Sunday
From Ports O' Call, San Pedro, CA

We have an amazing, once in a lifetime opportunity to spend 3 days as guests sailing to Catalina and back aboard the majestic 111' Brigantine Irving Johnson.

Come sail her, learn from her crew, eat and sleep aboard this historic ship for two nights and three amazing days. This is not a luxury cruise. Like the days of old, we can help set and drop sails, eat hot meals with the crew and sleep in sailing bunks (beds). See the sea and islands from the perspective of the great explorers.

- Roll up to our Cruiser's Weekend event in a Tall Ship
- Three squares are included (you know we are talking about food right?)
- Sleep aboard and experience nautical history
- The Irving Johnson has guest bunks for 29 in two main cabins
- Support an amazing non-profit at-sea education for youth
- Cost is $495. Deposit $100. Balance due 45 days prior to sailing
